Voices Anthropologists Dialogue Italian American Festival

travelling in spirit: from friuli to siberia - jectory, emic answers - the categories and voices of the actors. far from identifying a scientific approach with either the etic or the emic (as pike and lévi-strauss did, respectively) i have argued that historians and anthropologists should engage in a sustained dialogue between the two dimensions, etic and emic.<sup>2</sup> working on common cross-cultural communication challenges ... - working on common cross-cultural communication challenges page 3 of 4 different decision-making styles the roles individuals play in decision-making vary widely from culture to culture. for example, in the u.s., decisions are frequently delegated -- that is, an official assigns responsibility for a particular matter to a subordinate. the mouth trap: a play on words and things - tandfonline - differing voices, simply by reading and citing a range of texts and discourses, albeit with an accidental element involving unlooked for coincidences and 'objects trouvés'. there are also concerns about the appropriateness or otherwise of the voices in use, a testing of the tolerance in academic circles for jokes and citations from unusual sources
